

West Virginia Jewish Film FestivALL
Clay Center Caperton Planetarium and Theater
Sunday June 30, 2019

5:30 pm Bagel and Lox Spread and Coffee in lobby

6:30 pm. Ask Dr. Ruth

(USA, English, 100 minutes, 2019) A Hulu original.

Dr. Ruth Westheimer escaped the Holocaust with the Kindertransport (the subject of a prior WVJFF doc) as a child and her family was murdered. She later joined the Haganah as a sharpshooter to help establish the Jewish State before the itzy-bitzy Dr. Ruth became America's sex therapist. For her, sex has always been the opposite of death, and she has never shut up about it, even at her current age of 91. "Two consenting adults should be allowed to do whatever they want in the privacy of their bedroom...or pool table... or kitchen floor"...Warning: Graphic language , of course

8:15 pm Mr. Gaga: A True Story of Love and Dance

(USA, English and Hebrew, 102 minutes, 2017)

This film tells the story of Ohad Naharin, a renowned Israeli choreographer and artistic director of the Batsheva Dance Company. He is an artistic genius who redefined the language of modern dance. Former dancers and teachers remark on the demanding, difficult, selfish, gifted and irresistible fellow that Naharin, now 64, has always been, defying norms. He worked with Martha Graham in NYC and stole Mari Kajiwaru, a star with the Alvin Ailey to return to Israel as his wife.

"This film is beyond beautiful"...January Johnson Wolf

Director's note...These are both full length documentaries
Perhaps choose one (or see both for the truly strong of tuchus.)

Free and open to the public in association with FestivALL
Sponsored by The Federated Jewish Charities of Charleston

