Hanukkah Dinner Dec. 29

December 2019
Kislev / Tevet 5780

From the Rabbi's Desk

Dear Temple Israel Congregants, Community members, and Friends,

Shalom, and Greetings!

I hope your Thanksgiving holiday was full of warmth, family, friends, food, and fun. I think that this is probably my favorite of all the secular holidays, not least of which because it was modeled after the Jewish holiday of Sukkot – the harvest festival, at which we thank G-d for the bounty we enjoy, and return to a closeness to and awareness of nature and G-d's marvelous creation which is all around us, as well as all the blessings in our life.

November Events: Looking back

November was a busy time. In addition to our weekly Shabbat services and committee meetings, we had a number of special events.

I hope you were able to attend the Interfaith Forum on Climate Change that the Social Action Committee hosted Nov. 3. There was wonderful attendance, representing many groups and a wide cross section of the larger community, really inspiring. Watch for more information and follow-up events.

I also hope you had the opportunity to attend the gorgeous musical event on Nov. 9 that the Congregational Enrichment and Adult Education Committee arranged – sponsored by the Temple, Federated Jewish Charities, and B'nai Jacob Synagogue. Safam was amazing, and it was an evening to remember. If you couldn't make it, get hold of some Safam recordings to get at least a part of the experience. This was truly "Jewish" music – balm for the soul.

Nov. 1 was the Interfaith Devotional event at Temple Israel, led by the Baha'i community. The focus was on Hope for the Family. This was an outgrowth of the Baha'i Community's Peace Rose initiative, in which they planted a peace rose near the glass doors of the religious school wing.

We had another wonderful covered dish dinner on Nov. 1, following the Friday evening service. Be sure to plan to attend the next one on Dec. 6.

Saturday morning Nov. 2 was "First Shabbat." We had an abbreviated service, followed by Torah study, with noshes. The discussion was rich and great fun. Please note: the next "First Shabbat" is scheduled for Dec. 21 (NOT the first Shabbat of the month, due to a Pulpit Exchange on Dec. 7).

We incorporated an observation of Kristallnacht, as well as our commemoration in honor of veterans, in the Friday evening Shabbat service Nov. 8.

The first monthly session of the Level 2 Introduction to Hebrew course was held Nov. 13. We will meet again Dec. 4, 5-6 PM. We are working on prayers that are part of our regular liturgy. We worked through Eyn Keloheynu, and some grammar and roots that appear in it. You are welcome to join in – the only prerequisite is that you be able to recognize the Hebrew letters and vowels, so you can sound out what we are reading. Additional dates scheduled are Jan. 22, Feb. 12, March 11, April 29, and May 13.

Nov. 17 was our Global Day of Jewish Learning, on the theme "Speaking Volumes."

The first Charleston Death Café of the new year was held Nov. 17. Barring changes, we will continue meeting on selected Sundays 7-8:30 PM: Dec. 8, Jan. 12, Feb. 2, March 8, April 5, and May 17.

The Friday evening Shabbat service on Nov. 29 was to be led by members of the Ritual Committee in the absence of the rabbi. Thanks to Judy Lundy for heading it up.

December Events

This month will also be full.

- Dec. 4, Introduction to Hebrew Level 2 at 5-6.

Educational Events

In the November Bulletin, I asked for your level of interest in three educational options:

- 1) Chai Mitzvah (monthly text study and discussion)
- 2) Making Prayer Real (a prayer curriculum focusing on meanings of the liturgy)
- 3) Informal Discussions & Dialogues (periodic events that would each focus on a topic for discussion and study).

I am still asking for your level of interest in these options. If there is enough interest, I will offer one or more of them. Please let me know what you would like to see offered.

I hope you will participate in many of our services and activities, and take advantage of whatever interests you from among all that is offered.

Shalom, and many blessings,

B'virkat shalom,

Sisterhood Message

Sisterhood note cards make great gifts; seeking volunteers for Sojourner's breakfast and Adopt-A-Family gift wrapping

After a lively Sukkot event, Sisterhood has turned now to the holiday season where we can be a support for others. We will be cooking breakfast at the Sojourner's Shelter for Homeless Women and Families at 7 AM on Christmas Day, Dec. 25. So far, six Sisterhood members have volunteered. Maybe two more to help with stirring scrambled eggs for 80 residents?

Marsha Albert has two exciting programs in the planning stages for the upcoming year. Stay tuned for details – you'll love it! Millie Snyder is creating new incentives to increase attendance at our general membership meetings and we are sure that everyone will be pleasantly surprised.

The Social Action Committee is looking for Sisterhood help in wrapping gifts on Sunday, Dec. 8 for the Covenant House Adopt-A-Family. Please contact Anne Fishkin or Caroline Ostand if you'd like to volunteer.

The gorgeous note cards, available through Sisterhood, make wonderful Hanukkah gifts, as well as for sending greetings to friends and family.

Social Action Corner

Thanks to all for climate forum success; Adopt-a-Family needs

The Interfaith Forum on Climate Change: Opportunities for Action, sponsored by the Social Action Committee, took place Nov. 3 and was a great success. There were 150-170 attendees from throughout the region, including a group that drove in from Parkersburg.

Fourteen West Virginia environmental organizations staffed tables and educated us about their important work. We are indebted to our phenomenal panelists: Rabbi Daniel Swartz, Director of Coalition on Jewish Life and the Environment; Rev. Malik Saafir, past fellow and activist from GreenFaith, and Rev. Robin Blakeman of WV Interfaith Power and Light. They inspired us with their multiple perspectives and with practical ideas for acting on this crucial Tikkun Olam imperative, to heal and protect our earth and all those whose lives depend on its survival.

We are thankful to leaders of faith communities for getting the message out about the forum, to our hardworking and passionate committee members for organizing the event, and to the Temple Board members who attended and pitched in. We'd also like to thank the Temple Security Committee, congregants who attended, and Rabbi Joe Blair for his meaningful encouragement and support.

The message from everyone present was about the importance of all of us maintaining our commitment to keeping the momentum, moving forward. We will be reaching out to attendees who gave us their contact information so that an interfaith "Green Team" can be formed.

for Your wondrous acts of deliverance.
