

Shabbat and Rosh Hashanah services Friday & Saturday, September 18 & 19, 2020

Shabbat Shalom!

I hope you enjoyed our Shabbat and Rosh Hashanah services. Many thanks to David Stern and Bob Morris for enhancing our services, and thanks again to Rich Katz for the able tech support! Also, thanks to all who participated in the service.

The service was recorded; anyone who wishes can view it as a recording. I am posting the links for the recordings - both audio only and video with audio versions.

This information is going out by email, is listed on our Facebook page, and will be posted on the Temple Israel Website – you should be able to find a way to view our services if you like. If you have any difficulties, please be in touch.

REMINDER: members who would like to pick up a copy of the Mishkan T’fillah siddur (prayer book) or Mishkan HaNefesh machzor (High Holy Day prayer books) from the Temple can still arrange that by contacting the rabbi or the office this week.

Otherwise, you can access the words in our Siddur (prayer book) via this link to a flip book online version of the Mishkan Hanefesh for The High Holy Days

If you have any comments, criticisms, or suggestions about the services, events, activities, or classes, please let me know, or share your thoughts with Josh Barrett, Mary Rich Maloy, other board members, or the rabbi liaison committee members. Your comments are both sought and valued.

Please know that we continue to work hard to offer meaningful and uplifting services and events, and your input is valued, and most helpful in allowing us to craft them.

As always, I would love to hear from you, if you are available to chat for a few minutes - either on the phone calls, zoom meetings, or by phone, text, or email, to just touch base and let me know how you are doing. It can be during one of the check ins, or just let me know when you want to talk.

On Monday I will send a separate email with links (the LINKS Email) and details about accessing the events in the coming week, including Yom Kippur. If you don't get that email, contact me and I will re-send it. Some of the information is in the Bulletin for September: please look there to start.

Wishing you a Shabbat shalom and a Shanah Tovah Umetukah, and hoping to see you online soon!

Joe
