

Shabbat Shalom!

I hope you enjoyed our Shabbat service and Torah reading this evening. Many thanks to Josh Barrett who filled in for Bob, and to David Stern, for enhancing our service, and thanks again to Rich Katz for the able tech support!

The service was recorded; anyone who wishes can view it as a recording. I am posting the links for the recordings - both audio only and video with audio versions.

This information is going out by email, is listed on our Facebook page, and will be posted on the Temple Israel Website – you should be able to find a way to view our service if you like. If you have any difficulties, please be in touch.

REMINDER: members who would like to pick up a copy of the Mishkan T'fillah siddur (prayer book) or Mishkan HaNefesh machzor (High Holy Day prayer books) from the Temple can arrange that by contacting the rabbi or the office. PLEASE REMEMBER THAT THE OFFICE IS CLOSED ON FRIDAY SO MAKE YOUR PLANS BEFORE THEN.

Otherwise, you can access the words in our Siddur (prayer book) via this link to a flip book online version of the Mishkan T'fillah for Shabbat siddur (though many have commented that it is difficult to use online if you are watching the service). [We will offer the same sort of link for the High Holiday book as well for those services.]

If you have any comments, criticisms, or suggestions about the services, events, activities, or classes, please let me know, or share your thoughts with Josh Barrett, Mary Rich Maloy, other board members, or the rabbi liaison committee members. Your comments are both sought and valued.

Please know that we are working hard to try to offer meaningful and uplifting services and events, and your input is valued, and most helpful in allowing us to craft them.

As always, I would love to hear from you, if you are available to chat for a few minutes - either on the phone calls, zoom meetings, or by phone, text, or email, to just touch base and let me know how you are doing. It can be during one of the check ins, or just let me know when you want to talk.

On Sunday I will send a separate email with links (the LINKS Email) and details about accessing the events in the coming week. If you don't get that email, contact me and I will re-send it.

I will send information about the High Holy Days fairly SUNDAY. Please watch for it. Some of the information is in the Bulletin for September: please look there to start.

Wishing you a Shabbat shalom, and hoping to see you online soon!

Joe
