

Shabbat Shalom!

I hope you enjoyed our Shabbat and Simchat Torah service. Many thanks to David Stern and Bob Morris for enhancing our services, and thanks again to Rich Katz for the able tech support! Special thanks to those who participated in the service.

The service was recorded; anyone who wishes can view it as a recording. I am posting the links for the recording with this message. The information is going out by email, is listed on our Facebook page, and will be posted on the Temple Israel Website – you should be able to find a way to view our services if you like. If you have any difficulties, please be in touch.

REMINDER: if you picked up a High Holiday Mishkan HaNefesh machzor (High Holy Day prayer books) from the Temple, we would ask that you return it at your convenience. Simply email or call the rabbi or the office and arrange a time you will drop it off on the bench outside the front of the Temple.

If you wish to borrow a copy of the Mishkan T'fillah siddur for Shabbat services, please do the same thing: contact us and arrange to pick it up from the bench in front of the Temple (on the Kanawha Blvd side, with the circular drive).

If you prefer, you can access the words in our Siddur (prayer book) via this link to a flip book online version of the Mishkan T'fillah for Shabbat

As always, I would love to hear from you, if you are available to chat for a few minutes - either on the phone calls, zoom meetings, or by phone, text, or email, to just touch base and let me know how you are doing. It can be during one of the check ins, or just let me know when you want to talk.

If you have any comments, criticisms, or suggestions about the services, events, activities, or classes, please let me know, or share your thoughts with Josh Barrett, Mary Rich Maloy, other board members, or the rabbi liaison committee members. Your comments are both sought and valued.

Please know that we continue to work hard to offer meaningful and uplifting services and events, and your input is valued, and most helpful in allowing us to craft them.

On Sunday I will send a regular LINKS Email with links and details about accessing the events in the coming week. If you don't get that email, or any other, please contact me and I will re-send them.

Wishing you a Shabbat shalom and a Chag Sameach, and hoping to see you online soon!

Joe
