

Shavuah Tov!

Our Yom HaShoah service for April 27, 2022 took place as scheduled.

I was joined by Rabbi Urecki at Temple Israel for this service, and was happy that several congregants from both congregations came in person. We had more attending by Zoom, but sadly, the picture on Zoom did not work, so it was an audio only experience for them. Nonetheless, it was a meaningful, evocative service, and I am proud that we were able to commemorate this tragic event in world history that was so impactful on Jews. We were able to fulfil the mitzvah of remembering, and keeping the memory of the six million close to our hearts and in our minds. My sincere thanks to Rabbi Urecki and all who attended in any way.

Thanks to David Shapiro and Richard Hess who served as our technicians tonight.

The service tonight was livestreamed to the Temple Facebook, so you should be able to listen to the recorded service from tonight on the Temple Facebook page – Scroll down to find this service recording posted on the Temple page here:

PLEASE continue to be careful and follow the guidelines. Please get vaccinated/boosted if you have not already done so, as recommended. Please be safe, be kind, and be well.

If someone wishes to be added to our email list, we can arrange that – just ask them to let me know directly (by email or text), so we are sure not to ‘spam’ anyone.

I hope that your week is going well for you and your loved ones.

I will hope to see you on Friday for our Shabbat service.

Wishing you all good things! Stay safe and well!

Joe
