

Temple Israel – Charleston, W.Va. Shabbat service with Simchat Torah held Friday, Oct. 14, 2022

Shabbat Shalom!

Our Shabbat service for October 14th 2022 took place as scheduled, including observance of Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah.

Many thanks to all for their participation in the service this evening.

Special thanks to Marsha Albert who offered the candle blessings and ushered in our Shabbat and Holiday service.

Announcements were presented by Congregation president Fran Thalheimer.

Our tech work was led by David Shapiro, with able assistance by Jill Epstein – and the same dynamic duo served as our Gabbaim for the Torah service, and were the persons called up for the two Aliyot tonight.

David Stern and Bob Morris once again provided lovely music, truly enhancing the service, including many pieces that were drawn from the Hakafot (circuit or circling music for marching/dancing with the Torah Scrolls).

Thanks to all for taking part in carrying and marching/dancing with the Torah scrolls!

It was a lovely evening.

The board voted that the building will be open for both in-person and online attendance at worship services, and also for other meetings as announced. Refreshments are again being served, so we had a lovely Oneg Shabbat.

The board also voted to return to the policy suggesting masking (optional) in the building, and asked those attending to be respectful of other's desires regarding social distancing. They do require that you be fully vaccinated to the current recommended standard.

In person or online, if you want to have a role in our services, please be in touch with Ronni Spudich about lighting candles, Betty Stern about an Aliyah, or me about serving as a Gabbai or leading any part of the service.

The service tonight was livestreamed to the Temple Facebook page; you should be able to view the recorded service from tonight on that page – Scroll down to find this service recording posted on the Temple page here:
