

Shabbat Shalom!

Our Shabbat service for November 11th 2022 took place as scheduled.

Many thanks to all for their participation in the service this evening.

Thanks to Millie Snyder who offered the candle blessings and ushered in our Shabbat service.

Our Gabbai was Richard Hess, who also served as the person honored with the Aliyah as we read Torah.

President Fran Thalheimer once again offered the announcements for this week.

Our tech work was handled by David Shapiro, and it went very smoothly.

David Stern and Bob Morris once again provided lovely music, truly enhancing the service, and filling in all the gaps.

Thanks to all for taking part!

The board voted that the building will be open for both in-person and online attendance at worship services, and also for other meetings as announced. Refreshments are again being served, so we had a lovely Oneg Shabbat.

The board also voted to return to the policy suggesting masking (optional) in the building, and asked those attending to be respectful of other's desires regarding social distancing. They do require that you be fully vaccinated to the current recommended standard.

In person or online, if you want to have a role in our services, please be in touch with Ronni Spudich about lighting candles, Betty Stern about an Aliyah, or me about serving as a Gabbai or leading any part of the service.
