

Shabbat Shalom!

Our abbreviated and remote Shabbat service for November 25th 2022 took place as scheduled. It was very brief, less formal, and without support musically, technologically, or otherwise.

Note: the Shabbat Service upcoming on December 2nd will be followed by a covered dish dinner, so join us for that.

The board voted that the building will be open for both in-person and online attendance at worship services, and also for other meetings as announced. Refreshments are again being served.

The board also voted to return to the policy suggesting masking (optional) in the building, and asked those attending to be respectful of other's desires regarding social distancing. They do require that you be fully vaccinated to the current recommended standard.

In person or online, if you want to have a role in our services, please be in touch with Ronni Spudich about lighting candles, Betty Stern about an Aliyah, or me about serving as a Gabbai or leading any part of the service.

The service was livestreamed to the Temple Facebook page: you should be able to view the Zoom recorded service on that page – Scroll down to find the service recording posted on the Temple page here:

As always, I would love to hear from you. If you want to chat for a few minutes, please let me know. We have many options available - on the phone, in a zoom meeting, or by text or email, possibly even in person) - whatever works best for you. You can just let me know when you want to talk and we can arrange a time, or tell me when you are free and I can get in touch with you.

I sent the SUNDAY REMINDER LINKS EMAIL on Sunday for the period of Monday-Friday of this week.

I will send a THURSDAY REMINDER LINKS EMAIL on Thursday for the period of Friday-Sunday of the coming weekend.

If someone wishes to be added to our email list, we can arrange that – just ask them to let me know directly (by email or text), so we are sure not to ‘spam’ anyone.

Wishing you a Shabbat Shalom, and a Shavuah tov! Stay safe and well!

Joe
